

2017 IFC Fall Fraternity Recruitment Rules

1. Only enrolled UGA students may participate in formal recruitment, participate in a new member program, and/or join a fraternity.
2. No one in any way connected to the fraternity may provide, serve or partake of alcohol or other illegal substances in the presence of a potential new member or recently signed new member (someone that has accepted a bid).
3. No potential new member may be in possession of alcohol or other illegal substances at any time during the recruitment period. Any potential new member violating the recruitment rules is subject to dismissal from recruitment and/or IFC sanctions.
4. No overnight summer recruitment events (ex: beach weekends, lake weekends, etc.) are permitted by IFC or the Greek Life Office.
5. Summer band parties in or away from Athens are not permitted, even if not considered a recruitment event.
6. All recruitment functions that occur during formal recruitment (August 6-13) must remain in Athens. No social functions (band parties, socials, date nights, etc.) may be held from Sunday, August 6, 2017 through Sunday, August 13, 2017 until 6:00pm.
7. Only IFC approved entertainment is allowed during recruitment. All entertainment must be approved by IFC no later than August 3, 2017. No contracts should be signed until advisor and IFC approval have been obtained. Any themed events must be approved as well. Any tee shirt designs related to a themed recruitment event must be approved prior to ordering.
8. Fraternities and recruitment participants will not discuss or portray any other fraternities, sororities, or members of the UGA community in a negative manner.
9. Potential new members that have not accepted and signed a bid by Monday, August 7, 2017 at 6:30 pm must participate in formal recruitment to be eligible to join a fraternity.
10. Fraternities that pledge individuals that did not register/fully participate in formal recruitment will be sanctioned by the IFC. Potential members that signed a bid on August 7 are excluded from participating in formal recruitment.
11. All potential new members who choose to accept a bid must attend the IFC New Member Education Retreat on Tuesday, August 16.
12. All chapters and individuals as representatives of their chapters that do not abide by these rules will be subject to sanctions by the IFC.
