Also, on a monthly basis, the Vice President of Public Relations is responsible for promoting, collecting nominations, selecting and setting up a meeting/photoshoot with the PANhellenic Woman of the Month. She must interact frequently with the social chairs and philanthropy chairs in order to get event dates and communicate those dates back to the Council. It is crucial to make sure that all philanthropy events are advertised at weekly council meetings and that as many Panhellenic Executive Board members as possible can go to show support.

During recruitment, the Vice President of Public Relations is responsible for advertising recruitment and Panhellenic life in a positive light and providing entertaining updates and promoting media effort. This can include going to a live round of Recruitment to collect video footage or scanning social media for consumer content to repost. Aiding the Vice President of Recruitment and the Vice President of Recruitment Counselors in any way possible is also an important role during Recruitment. She will also hold regular meetings with the Judicial Board to prepare them to act as representatives of their chapter and ensure that they understand their role in the judicial process. She will also oversee the process of reviewing applications for the different Panhellenic awards given at the annual Greek Awards banquet in the spring.

During the summer and throughout Formal Recruitment, the Vice President of Panhellenic Standards is in charge of processing all violations, which involves filling out the appropriate paperwork and holding mediations if necessary. If an issue were to arise that needed further adjudication, she would preside over a Judicial Board hearing. In the fall she also coordinates and facilitates position-specific roundtable discussions for leaders within each of the sororities’ Executive Boards.
