The Order of Greek Horsemen

The Order of Greek Horsemen was founded in 1955 by students Frank "Sonny" Seiler, John Wilkins and Donald Joel with John Cox, Director of Student Activities, serving as the first advisor. The organization honors outstanding greek men for their contributions to the fraternity system. This involvement may be through IFC, their own fraternity, or being active in other forms of campus life.

UGA FRATERNITY RECRUITMENT GUIDE 2022

Dear Student:

Welcome to the University of Georgia, the birthplace of public higher education in America. We have a rich history of educating leaders for the state of Georgia and beyond. Fraternities and sororities have long been a part of our institution, and today a quarter of our students are active in Greek Life.

Greek Life provides students with opportunities for leadership and character development through charitable and community service while helping them build connections and friendships that can last a lifetime. Those involved in Greek Life are among the most engaged students on campus, with high levels of participation in extracurricular activities that complement their classroom experiences and grade point averages that commonly exceed those of other students.

After graduation, fraternity and sorority members often become some of our most committed alumni and our most generous donors. Notable Greek alumni have included U.S. senators, governors, corporate CEOs, scientists, educators, attorneys, and musicians, among others.

By taking full advantage of the intellectual, social, and cultural opportunities available at the University of Georgia, you enrich your college experience and lay the foundation for a successful future.

While Greek Life provides numerous opportunities for personal growth and development, it also brings great responsibilities. Those involved with Greek Life should strive to be positive role models in their organization and for the greater campus community. You will be counted on to help shape a culture that fosters educational excellence and a welcoming and supportive environment for all.

I appreciate your interest in Greek Life and invite you to learn more about the opportunities it provides. Best wishes for success in your endeavors here at the University of Georgia and in all that you do.

Sincerely,

Jere W. Morehead
President

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Nationally, Greek men make up 70% of the people listed in Who's Who, 86% of the CEO's in the country's top fifty corporations, 75% of the United States Congressmen, and 85% of Supreme Court Justices since 1910.

WELCOME FROM THE IFC PRESIDENT

Greetings,

On behalf of the Interfraternity Council, it is my pleasure to welcome you to one of the South's finest institutions of higher learning. Founded in 1785, the University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in America. This is the first of many proud distinctions held here at the University. Another, as you will soon come to realize, is the excellence found within our Greek community. Students who have participated in Greek Life have traditionally been among the most active and successful undergraduates on campus.

Now, I would like to introduce you to the process of fraternity recruitment. During this process, you will have the opportunity to participate in many events with numerous fraternities and many different people. With 26 chapters, we know there is a fraternity for you! The recruitment process is designed as a system for you to meet new people, explore the Greek community, and, ultimately, find the fraternity that is the best fit for you.

This is an exciting time for you, and there are thousands of active brothers and alumni who will attest to the fact that you are in an outstanding position. These fraternity men will tell you that deciding to take part in fraternity recruitment was one of the greatest decisions that they have ever made. The Greek community at the University of Georgia has consistently developed men of character and men who have gone to lead our school, state, and country. Thank you for your interest in our Greek community and for taking the initial step in the process of joining a fraternity.

Once again, congratulations on your acceptance to Georgia's most storied University. I hope you take full advantage of this amazing opportunity, and I assure you that Greek Life will enrich your experience as a University of Georgia student. Good luck in your collegiate endeavors, and I look forward to seeing you join the ranks of the prestigious fraternity men who have come before you.

Sincerely,

G.M. Dallas Hunt
President

The Interfraternity Council

Established in 1915, the Interfraternity Council is the self-governing body of twenty-six member fraternity chapters at the University of Georgia. With a legislative arm composed of the respective chapter presidents and a six-person Executive Board, the Council strives to promote excellence in all aspects of fraternity life and academic pursuits. In addition, the Executive Board selects a class of clerks each year to aid in its work.

Each chapter president serves as the direct connection between his chapter and the Council and has one vote on all business before the Council, with areas of interest including philanthropy and community service, public relations, diversity, recruitment, risk management, educational programming, and scholarship. The Executive Board, aided by its class of clerks, serve as representatives of the Council to the Greek Life Office, University administrators, and the campus at-large. Scholarships have been at the core of the Council since its inception, with over $30,000 eligible to be distributed to outstanding IFC men for 2021. In addition, the Council established a $100,000 Georgia Commitment Scholarship in February 2020, continuing its legacy of philanthropic efforts.

Tasked with overseeing the recruitment process, the Council publishes The Fraternity Way and requires all New Members to attend educational seminars covering topics such as hazing, drugs & alcohol, sexual assault prevention, diversity, and character development. The Council is guided by the Advisor to the Interfraternity Council, B. Logan Morrison, who is an Assistant Director in the Greek Life Office.

The Interfraternity Council constitutes only a fourth of the Greek community at UGA. Included in the community are the Panhellenic, National Pan-Hellenic, and Multicultural Greek Councils and their member organizations.

The Panhellenic Council, made up of 19 sororities, is responsible for making policies, planning recruitment, promoting academic excellence, and planning other activities involving sororities. Panhellenic has its own executive board comprised of members from various organizations.

The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) is made up of three sororities and three fraternities. The NPHC provides unity among the traditionally black sororities and fraternities on the UGA campus. Like Panhellenic and IFC, the NPHC has its own executive board and is responsible for implementing policies, procedures and events involving its member groups.

The Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) is made up of eight sororities and six fraternities. MGC works to increase awareness of each chapter's respective culture, serve the Athens community, and maintain high academic standards. MGC represents a proud and dynamic minority.

If you would like additional information about these councils, please contact the Greek Life Office at 706-542-4612 or visit greeklife.uga.edu.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is a fraternity?

A fraternity is a group of men working together toward common goals and issues. Fraternities strive to develop their members' individual talents and skills to better prepare them for life after graduation.

What is Fraternity Recruitment?

Recruitment, also known as "Rush," is the activity by which fraternities seek new members. Fall recruitment consists of three structured days that include an orientation meeting and visitation to chapter houses to meet members and learn more about fraternity life.

After visiting the chapter, potential new members are free to visit any of the chapters for the next few days. Invitations (bids) to join a fraternity can be given out any time during the recruitment period.

What is a bid?

A bid is an invitation to join a fraternity. Bids may be extended to a potential new member after the fraternity has gotten to know him. Potential new members should not feel pressured or obligated to accept a bid. Potential new members may receive numerous bids from different fraternities but can only accept one. Potential new members are encouraged to meet as many fraternity men as possible and should not concentrate on obtaining a bid from a single fraternity. Rushing more than one fraternity allows a potential new member to meet many new people during the recruitment process, even if he does not receive or accept a bid from a group.

If I go through recruitment, do I have to join a fraternity?

Although approximately 86% of potential new members will join a fraternity during the fall semester, it is not required. Usually one half of the fraternities participate in Spring Recruitment, and you may have the opportunity to join then as well.

What type of clothing should I wear during recruitment?

Individuals going through recruitment generally wear casual, khaki-type pants or shorts and a polo-type shirt. No suits or ties are required during recruitment.

Do I need a recommendation to join a fraternity?

Fraternities generally do not require any recommendations. However, if recommendations are solicited, they should be sent to the chapter house or the Greek Life Office.

How much does a fraternity cost?

The cost of fraternity dues and fees vary from chapter to chapter. Chapter dues are used to help maintain the chapter house, pay yearly insurance, national fees and services, assist with philanthropy/community service projects, support fraternity leadership schools, fund academic scholarships, and help defray the costs of alumni, parent, and social events.

For Fall 2022, average cost is as follows:

These are average numbers. Each fraternity will have its exact costs that can be provided upon request.

$1440 per semester

Costs of meals vary due to the variety of plan options
- number of meals per week, etc.

If you have any other questions or are in need of disability services, please call the Greek Life Office at (706) 542-4612.

Academics

Fraternities at the University of Georgia realize that excelling in academics is the top priority for all students. The grade point average of each fraternity is ranked, published, and available to anyone who seeks it. Fraternity life offers a wide variety of academic advantages including tutoring programs, peer advisement, and in-house study hours. Fraternity members also have the opportunity to receive IFC scholarships, a multitude of chapter scholarships, individual and chapter academic awards, and numerous scholarships and awards from their international organizations.

Leadership

The University of Georgia fraternity system is dedicated to building future leaders by providing numerous leadership opportunities. Campus leaders include men involved in Tate Society, Arch Society, Student Government, Varsity Athletics, and Student Judiciary. Greek men are also recognized in honor societies such as Order of Omega, Gridiron, Omicron Delta Kappa, Order of the Greek Horsemen, and Sphinx.

Brotherhood

Greek fraternities were founded as a network of support for men who were going through similar experiences. The fraternity is a great way to enhance the general college experience through brotherhood and friendship. Brotherhood means building bonds between members of the Greek community and working towards the shared goal of a better campus for all. Some of the best friends one will ever make are fellow fraternity brothers and other members of the Greek community.

Community Service

One of the founding principles of every fraternity is giving of yourself in service to the community. Thousands of dollars are raised and over 25,000 hours of service are performed by fraternity men each year in such activities as UGA Miracle, UGA HERO, Relay for Life, Adopt-a-Highway, tutoring Athens area students, and volunteering at the homeless shelter, local Boy's and Girl's Club, and two local hospitals.

Social Life

Social life is a visible portion of Greek life that is excellent for acclimating students to the University. Fraternities are very busy with homecoming, alumni weekends, parents weekends, formals, and date nights. Fraternities also host band parties, thematic weekends, socials and dinners. Social events give the fraternity man an opportunity to meet new and exciting people while building life-long friendships.

Intramurals

Intramurals are a very exciting aspect of fraternity life. Although open to all students, the strongest competition is among Greek organizations. Apart from UGA intramurals, fraternity men also participate in philanthropic and interfraternity sporting events. Athletics prove to be important physical and mental outlets for students and help improve self-confidence and develop teamwork. Through competition, intramurals continue to help build brotherhood and school spirit at UGA.

Alumni

Brotherhood continues throughout life as one enters into alumni status. Fraternity alumni are considerably the most loyal of all Bulldogs, both to the University and to their Greek peers. Alumni enjoy returning to Athens and visiting the University and their chapter house. Through alumni, the fraternity network extends across the world and is helpful in gaining employment or when relocating to a new area.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Fraternal organizations offer a wide range of social activities and programs for their members. Fraternal organizations have also taken responsibility by utilizing risk management procedures to decrease the possibility of accidents at their events. Each chapter follows a social policy developed by its national organization in addition to the policies of the Interfraternity Council and the University. The IFC is committed to helping the fraternities maintain a safe and responsible environment that contributes to the life-long friendships unique to the Greek community.

Dry Recruitment

No one in any way connected to the fraternity may serve or partake of alcohol or other illegal substances in the presence of a potential new member. No potential new member may be in possession of alcohol or other illegal substances at any time during the recruitment period. Any potential new member violating the recruitment rules is subject to suspension from recruitment and will not be allowed to join a fraternity.

Alcohol

Each chapter maintains a responsible social policy that promotes enjoyable social activities in a safe environment. The University also has a closed party policy that opposes the misuse of alcohol and maintains that all chapters, individual members, and guests must abide by state and local laws and University regulations. All chapters work to educate and foster a better understanding of social responsibility and alcohol education for their members. The IFC is committed to helping organizations maintain balanced social programs that contribute to personal development and do not detract from the University's educational mission.

A BRIEF TIMELINE OF SIGNIFICANT UGA FRATERNITY EVENTS AND MEMBER CONTRIBUTIONS

Diversity

The Greek Community at the University of Georgia is comprised of a diverse group of individuals coming together to work for a common goal. The IFC is committed to educating its members about the value of living in a multicultural society. The Greek community sponsors a variety of programs to educate their members on diversity issues.

Behavioral Expectations

All chapters work to educate and foster a strong commitment to a fair and respectful environment for living, work, and study. The University's Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment ("NDAH") Policy prohibits any member of the UGA community from engaging in harassment, including sexual misconduct, and discrimination against others within the University community, and includes instructions for making a complaint.

The full NDAH Policy is available at:

<http://eoo.uga.edu/policies/non-discrimination-anti-harassment-policy>

Interfraternity Council

Hazing in any manner is prohibited. Fraternities at UGA expect their members to strive for academic achievement, demonstrate responsible citizenship, show concern for the rights and needs of others, and provide leadership. Hazing has no place in fraternity life and is completely contrary to the ideals on which fraternities were founded.

All members of the University community share the responsibility to challenge and make known to the University or the Interfraternity Council any acts that appear to be hazing. There are a number of ways to report incidents of possible hazing. You may report such activity to the IFC, the Greek Life Office at (706) 542-4612, or the Hazing Hotline at (706) 207-0779. You do not have to identify yourself at any time.

HAZING POLICY

Hazing is defined as any intentional, negligent or reckless action, or situation which causes another pain, embarrassment, ridicule or harassment, regardless of the willingness of the participant.

Such actions and situations include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Forcing or requiring the drinking of alcohol or any other substance;
2. Forcing or requiring the eating of food or anything an individual refuses to eat;
3. Calisthenics (push-ups, sit-ups, jogging, runs, etc.);
4. Paddling;
5. Line-ups (yelling at people in any formation or harassing them);
6. Forcing or requiring the theft of any property;
7. Road trips (dropping someone off to find his/her own way back);
8. Scavenger hunts;
9. Any activity that causes disruption of academic pursuits or endeavors;
10. Permitting less than six (6) continuous, uninterrupted hours of sleep per night;
11. Conducting activities, which do not allow adequate time for study (not allowing to go to class, missing group projects, etc.);
12. Nudity at any time;
13. Running personal errands of the members (driving to class, cleaning their individual rooms, serving meals, picking up laundry or other items, washing cars, etc.);
14. Requiring the violation of University, Federal, State or local law;
15. Physical abuse or injury.

Beta Theta Pi is a prominent national fraternity that provides college men with the opportunity to be a part of a brotherhood that lasts far beyond your four years in college. Your fraternity brothers will become your lifelong friends, forever linked by your shared values of mutual assistance, trust, and integrity, as well as the many memories you make together. Our brothers are devoted to bettering UGA's campus as a whole not only by getting involved in organizations but committing to them wholeheartedly with the intent of making a positive impact. Brothers consistently take on all kinds of leadership roles on campus, serving as Presidents, VPs, Treasures, and more in some of the most respected and competitive organizations such as IFC, UGA Miracle, HEROs, SGA, SMIS, Corsair Society, and many more. In addition to the impact made on campus, the presence of Beta is felt through our various philanthropic efforts aiming to benefit our primary philanthropy AFSP, the Athens community, and whatever/whoever else calls for our help. On top of balancing academics and extracurricular pursuits, our social calendar is consistently active with events including a formal in New Orleans, our annual spring party Beta Lei, monthly brotherhood events, tailgates, socials, date nights, and much more. College is about building lifelong relationships and finding a healthy balance between academic excellence, campus involvement, and of course, having fun, and Beta Theta Pi is a great place to do just that.

BYX is the largest national Christian Fraternity in the United States. Also known as Brothers Under Christ, BYX exists for the purpose of establishing brotherhood and unity among college men based on the common bond of Jesus Christ. As brothers, we seek to glorify the Lord through the avenue of a social fraternity, holding events like worship nights, bible studies, parties, socials, brotherhood events, formals, etc. We operate the same way other fraternities do, except we're centered around Christianity. We believe that the idea of a social fraternity can/does coexist in a fraternal environment. Brotherhood and togetherness is a gift from the Lord, and we have a lot of fun together, and we grow as men together. We are a dry fraternity, meaning we do not have any alcohol at any of our events.

Chi Phi was the second fraternity established at the University of Georgia (1867), and is the oldest social fraternity in the United States (1824). In its historic 155 years at UGA, the Eta Chapter has produced five Governors of the state of Georgia, as well as more captains of the football team and Presidents of the University than any other fraternity. There are 15 buildings on campus named after Chi Phi alumni. The Chi Phi house is the only LEED-certified fraternity house in the entire nation.

Chi Phi's success is due largely to its strong alumni association and continuing bond of brotherhood. This year promises to be another strong year for Chi Phi. The chapter will continue to be involved in the community with our annual fundraisers and will maintain its position as one of the top fraternities on campus, academically, socially, and philanthropically.

Members of Chi Phi are involved in clubs and organizations across the UGA campus, including the Student Government Association, Inter-Fraternity Council, Corsair Society, Institute for Leadership Advancement (ILA), Student-Managed Investment Fund (SMIF), and Order of Omega. Our philanthropic efforts include annual fundraising basketball tournaments, blood drives, and collaborations with the Backpack Project of Athens. The chapter's social calendar is packed each year with football gameday tailgates, various themed date nights, socials, and band parties, our Formal in New Orleans, Chi Phi Halloween in the Fall, and LOST Weekend in the Spring.

Chi Psi has a long, rich history as a national fraternity as it was founded in 1841 at Union College by Philip Spencer and 9 other Brothers. Thus, Chi Psi was the first social fraternity in the nation and we were also the first to have a home which we call “The Lodge”. At the University of Georgia, we were founded in 1890, making us one of the oldest Fraternities on campus. The 18 young men who founded Chi Psi at the University of Georgia held a strong belief in brotherhood and playing an active role as a social fraternity and those ideals are still strong today.

At Chi Psi, we pride ourselves as a fraternity with a deep rich history that provides a young man the opportunity to grow both academically and socially. Both our National Central Office and our local Alumni Foundations offer a variety of programs and scholarships to help you through your time as an undergraduate and beyond. The pledge with the highest GPA for the semester is awarded a $1,000 scholarship. Other scholarship opportunities are available to our undergraduates. Our local Foundation awards a $1,000 scholarship annually to a well-rounded Brother who has academic achievement, fraternity involvement and campus involvement. In addition, our National Fraternity offers a variety of scholarships that you can apply for on an annual basis.

As a social fraternity, we have a full calendar of fun events. These include socials with sororities, our Mountain weekend getaway, Formal and many other themed parties. But the best times are being at the Lodge playing basketball, watching tv or just sitting on our awesome front porch and spending time with brothers. At Chi Psi, our goal is for you to succeed both academically and socially and leave with not only life long memories but lifelong brothers who you will share many experiences with as you go through life.

The Beta Delta chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon was created to organize, build up, and better the young men of the University of Georgia. Founded in 2019, we strive to develop leaders who will impact their community as students who are driven, selfless, and embody the five values of every Deke. Our chapter prides itself in its community service and philanthropy work, specializing in benefitting the Athens-area community around us. Each year, we support a number of Athens organizations, such as Books for Keeps, the Athens Area Homeless Shelter, the Athens Emergency Food Bank, and many others. We also pride ourselves in promoting high academic achievement from our members, setting ambitious goals and creating programs to assist our members in reaching their full potential.

In addition to our service and academic goals, DKE supports a strong social schedule filled with socials, date nights, brotherhood events, and a spring formal. The members of the Beta Delta chapter are heavily involved with the community around us, participating in organizations such as FFA, DeMolay International, SGA, and UGA Dawg Camp. Delta Kappa Epsilon has long been renowned for producing leaders, with some notable alumni including Presidents Teddy Roosevelt, George H.W. Bush, and George W. Bush, as well as Alan Bean and Admiral Robert E. Peary. Following in the footsteps of our alumni, we hope to enable our members to achieve success long after they leave the University, and look forward to seeing them semesterly at our alumni events.

Phi Kappa Tau was nationally founded in 1906 at Miami University in Ohio. We remember our roots to this day and continue to strive to be different from other Greek organizations by staying true to our initial beliefs: the innate worth of members, democracy, and Christian ideals.

In 1949, a group of University of Georgia students composed of World War II veterans returning to college formed the Beta Xi Colony of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity where it would thrive for 65 years. On October 22, 2011 Beta Xi re-charted and in just over three years, our brotherhood has grown to 100 men by searching for leaders who desire a loyal brotherhood, an effective medium to improve their community, and a means to progress into adulthood.

Our associate membership program, The Mark of Distinction, is designed to allow members to learn our ideals and history and understand the expectations and obligations of a true brother. With 65 years of rich chapter history and an alumni network in fields such as public service, banking, and private enterprise, we provide ample opportunities for our members to develop professionally. Our national philanthropy, SeriousFun Children's Network, provides a safe summer camp experience for children with serious illnesses, and our chapter has raised over $18,000 in the past year for this cause. Phi Kappa Tau is working to redefine the fraternity man by offering a lifelong commitment to brotherhood, learning, ethical leadership and exemplary character.

Sigma Phi Epsilon (SigEp) was founded at Richmond College in 1901 by Carter Ashton Jenkins. He proclaimed “this fraternity will be different” and envisioned a place where young men, bound by love, could be surrounded by leaders and high achievers. Coming to campus in 1963, driven by the principles of virtue, diligence, and brotherly love, the men within the GA Delta chapter at UGA place an emphasis on working together to be better versions of themselves, and through this they are able to gain relationships that will last a lifetime. The brothers do this by being leaders, scholars, athletes, and gentlemen on campus and in their communities. While they understand that recognition does not determine the men they are or the men they will become, SigEp GA Delta members continuously bring home IFC and campus awards, highlighting that their model works.

Additionally, to further the development of their members, SigEp has incorporated “The Balanced Man Program” which could best be defined as an alternative to the traditional pledgeship. Every member goes through a four-year program, each with new challenges designed to sharpen the men they are and make a lasting impact on their lives, not just their time in college. The program facilitates becoming and staying involved all the way up until graduation, not only in the fraternity but around campus.

During one’s time in Sigma Phi Epsilon, they will be pushed to become a better version of themselves, while at the same time, building relationships that will last a lifetime.

Sigma Pi brothers are committed to brotherhood, chivalry, and scholarship. Our members are involved in campus organizations such as UGA Miracle, Student Government, club sports, and the Honors Program. We offer a full social calendar and hold countless exciting events. Some of these events include our Orchid Ball Formal in Nashville, Winterfest, Fall and Spring Parties, tailgates before sporting events, and numerous date nights, including a casino-themed semi-formal. Also, there are a host of brotherhood events and activities, such as interfraternity sports leagues, our Sigma Pirates and Country Club Christmas parties, and paintball. The chapter receives strong support from our Alumni, hosting a founders day banquet at the house, two annual alumni-funded scholarships for members, and ample post-graduate networking opportunities. Philanthropy is at the forefront in terms of importance, with an annual concert benefiting UGA Miracle, a food drive benefiting the Athens Food Bank, and strong involvement with the Sheepdog Connection and other local charities. In the past year, Sigma Pi was the top fundraising fraternity for UGA Miracle, with our brothers raising over $15,000 for the cause. Joining Sigma Pi not only gives you a close group of brothers, but it also opens the door for you to have a fulfilling college experience with countless opportunities to grow and thrive.

Theta Chi was founded at Norwich University in 1856. The Delta Beta Chapter was founded here at the University of Georgia in 1949, and since then the chapter has initiated several distinguished members and developed a significant alumni network, including current Georgia Attorney General Chris Carr. Our brothers at Theta Chi continue to promote the ideals of the fraternity through the mutual benefit and assistance of its members; the creation of closer bonds of brotherhood among its members; the promotion of the ideals of Truth, Temperance and Tolerance; and the extension of An Assisting Hand. Our chapter house was recently remodeled in 2020, with plans for a second round to further refurbish and extend the house in the near future. Theta Chi boasts a strong social calendar including several sorority socials, date nights, tailgates, and band parties. Chief among those is our annual Moccoo Party in the spring and Red Carnation Ball in the winter. Our brothers also work to promote philanthropy on campus through several efforts to support the USO, Athens Area Humane Society, and others around the local area. Our chapter prides itself on developing leaders on campus and our members can be found in many organizations on campus including UGA Heros, UGA miracle, SGA, IFC, and more. Always looking to grow and improve, Theta Chi continues to work tirelessly to recruit and develop resolute men in a close and tight-knit brotherhood.
