Zeta Psi Chapter Hosts Georgia State Cluster Meeting

ATHENS, Ga., January 10, 2024 --The Zeta Psi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated will host the 2024 Georgia State Cluster on January 12, 2024, through January 14, 2024, at the Classic Center in Athens, Georgia.

The meeting will bring together women leaders, visionaries, and change-makers from across the state. Attendees can look forward to an agenda filled with interactive workshops, ceremonies, social events, and networking opportunities.

“This year’s cluster holds a special significance, as it is being held on a weekend that marks a milestone in the history of our sorority,” according to Zeta Psi chapter president Sydney Mance. “ We will celebrate 111 years since our founding date on January 13, 1913. I’m thankful that our leadership trusted Zeta Psi to be one of the host chapters that played a crucial role in making this celebratory event come to fruition.”

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated is an organization of college educated women committed to sisterhood, scholarship, service, and social action, providing a wide range of programs addressing international awareness, physical and mental health, economic, and educational development. The Zeta Psi Chapter and the Athens Alumnae Chapter have been active partners, serving the North Georgia Community since 1969, and plan to welcome over 3,000 women to the “Classic Center” for the state meeting as members continue to develop ways to better serve the community at a state level.
